

Friends Association for Higher Education presents
QUAKER LEADINGS IN HIGHER EDUCATION SERIES

Freeing Higher Education

from Systemic Racism:
Cultivating healthy environments to learn and teach

Which kinds of STEM training programs and mentorship experiences are more likely to result in historically excluded students persisting in academic career pathways? How might retention be helped by certain institutional policies and a climate that provides kindness cues that affirm social inclusion?

Tuesday, Sept. 22

7–8:30 p.m.
EDT

via ZOOM

To register:
<https://tinyurl.com/FAHE-09-22-2>

Presenter

MICA ESTRADA

Associate Professor in Social and Behavioral
Science and Institutes for Health and Aging,
University of California, San Francisco.

Moderator

WALTER HJELT SULLIVAN

Director of Quaker Affairs
Haverford College

Friends Association
for Higher Education