

Are you interested in building social justice in communities?

The American Friends Service Committee (AFSC) is proud to announce the launch of the Emerging Leaders for Liberation. This program is open to young adults looking to deepen their social justice and leadership skills.

Learn more and apply:

afsc.org/ell

Emerging Leaders for Liberation

1501 Cherry Street
Philadelphia, PA 19102
215-241-7000
afsc.org

The American Friends Service Committee (AFSC) promotes a world free of violence, inequality, and oppression. Guided by the Quaker belief in the divine light within each person, we nurture the seeds of change and the respect for human life to fundamentally transform our societies and institutions.